The Nathan and Esther Pelz
Holocaust Education Resource
Center is a program of the Milwaukee Jewish Federation.

The Nathan and Esther Pelz Holocaust Education Resource Center in Milwaukee, Wisconsin is dedicated to tolerance and diversity education. We engage with students and adults and impart the lessons of the Holocaust in order to remember the victims. Our programs and survivor testimonials reach nearly 20,000 middle, high school, and college students as well as adults. We are committed to keeping alive the voices of those targeted in the Holocaust and educating future generations about the injustices of bigotry and racism.

We believe cable broadband company New Charter would be a great addition to its industry and we urge you to approve its merger. New Charter would share in our mission to promote diversity and inclusion. The company would implement programs in hiring, procurement, programming, and community investment in an effort to diversify the voices and influence in the industry. We are impressed with the comprehensive plan, and believe it would find great success.

We are also confident that New Charter would provide educational programs with the tools they need to reach today's students. We work with young students and know the value of technology in their engagement with the materials. We believe New Charter's quality products and commitment to community investment would benefit countless schools and educational organizations.

Please take into consideration New Charter's diversity and inclusion commitments as you review the merger and lend your approval.

Sincerely,

Dr. Shay Pilnik,
Executive Director
